Overview

- ◆ The Chamber reserves the right to make booth location adjustments as deemed necessary for the successful operation of the event.
- ◆ Booth spaces may not be transferred, sold or sublet.
- ◆ No electricity or security is provided.
- ◆ All sales activities and displays must be confined to exhibitor booth space.
- ◆ All participants are responsible for making sure their exhibition area is clean of waste during and after the event. NEW: ALL exhibitor waste MUST be placed in designated dumpster shown on map. Any excessive spills/mishaps on the grounds must be reported to the Chamber staff for proper cleanup.
- ◆ Exhibitors shall furnish their own tables, chairs and tent canopies.
- ◆ All participants will refrain from the operation of any machine, or to project sound at a level, which might be objectionable or interfere with the overall success and enjoyment of the event.
- ◆ All participants will provide any safety guards, shields, or precautions to prevent possible injury to event attendees, residents and visitors (includes tent weights).
- ◆ All participants agree not to distribute any dangerous or harmful articles of any kind.
- ◆ No refunds will be issued. Event held rain or shine.

Products Sold and Character of Event

The Hodag Heritage Festival is promoted as a family friendly event so we ask that vendors take that into consideration when choosing items for their booths. The Chamber reserves the right to question, deny and remove any exhibitor and/or products that do not comply with the rules and integrity of the event.

Failure to comply with the rules may result in expulsion from the show without refund.

- ◆ Items not allowed for sale or display include: items related to violence, nudity, or sexually explicit content.
- ◆ Exhibitor booths are required to contain at least a small selection of Hodag, Folklore/Cryptid, Rhinelander, or nothwoods/logging items. Additional items may also be on display or for sale.
- ◆ As a festival, we must comply with the Oneida County Health Department (OCHD) in their food vendor regulations. Once your food booth app is received the Rhinelander Chamber will send you an email with an OCHD form, as well as a checklist to keep in your food stand the day of the event. More details on this will come in the email.
- ◆ Comply with all State, County and City ordinances which govern the operation of public events.

Exhibitor Application Acceptance

- ◆ Exhibitors must send pictures of the products to be sold, to the Chamber with their application in order for the Hodag Heritage Committee and Chamber staff to deem products acceptable. Food Vendors must provide a complete list of items to be sold.
- ◆ If Exhibitors participated in a previous show, photos are not required.
